ANNOUNCEMENTS AND REPORTS

Councilmember Armstrong

The Auditors had requested to speak to him, and asked what his observation was of the City’s internal controls, and if there was an opportunity of fraud being committed. The auditors were very impressed with the staff and their willingness to assist, and advised him that Kellogg preparedness for the audit is great for the size and staff we have.

City Clerk Nila Jurkovich thanked Councilmember Armstrong for his kind words, and advised the Council it takes a team, and she will pass this on to her staff.
Councilmember Douglas

The annual audit was performed during the week of October 21st with the auditors onsite.

Department Heads: a reminder to you and your employees to get RSVPs in to the City Clerk for the City’s Christmas Dinner that will be held on December 7th.

The Silver Mountain tax appeal hearing started the week of November 4th and is open to the public.

The Kellogg Lighting Festival will be Saturday, November 30th. The Mayor and Council members will ride the trolley.

Councilmember Norris
Welcomed the three council members back for another four years. Happy Thanksgiving.

Councilmember DeLeamp
The front office remake looks good, making the office more presentable, more functional and giving security to our employees.

Councilmember Moody
Thanked everyone for their support.

Mayor Pooler

Could not have completed the last 4½ years without the good support group. Thank you.

There being no further business to come before the Council at this time, it was adjourned at 6:44 P.M. to meet at its regular time of December 11, 2019.
